Child and family Support in Europe: An innovative framework

On Thursday 30th of June 2022, from 12:00 to 13:30 (Portuguese time), the EurofamNet open hybrid seminar "Child and Family Support in Europe: An innovative framework" will be held. As indicated, the seminar/webinar will be held in person and on-line, for those who wish to attend via videoconference. The event is hosted by the COST Action 18123 European Family Support Network (EurofamNet), supported by COST (European Cooperation in Science and Technology).

In this edition, the 'Building Knowledge Exchange' section of EuroFamNet, which conducts these seminars/webinars, will be dedicated to sharing the results of EuroFamNet's Working Group 2 (WG2). WG2 is entitled "Developing the European conceptual framework on family support" and will share the results developed during the course of the project, which focus on the conceptual framework for family support at European level.

The presentation of these results will be followed by the participation of relevant respondents related to the topic. After them the audience will have the possibility to interact with all the speakers.

Hoping it could be of interest to you, we look forward to seeing you. Please pass this information on to anyone you think might be interested.
