

IG18123 – A quality assurance protocol for family support services in Europe: An evidence-based and culturally informed model for professional practice

QA[4]EuroFam

Faro (Portugal), 2024 July 4th and 5th

Training school
Quality family support and research for social impact

Thursday 4th July

8.30h	Registration & Welcome	Registration desk
9.00h	Welcome and Opening ceremony	Lucía Jiménez & John Canavan. EurofamNet Chair and Vice Chair, University of Seville, University of Galway Cristina Nunes. Local Organiser, University of Algarve
9.30h	A Quality Assurance Protocol for Family Support Services in Europe	Lucía Jiménez & María José Rodrigo. University of Seville, University of La Laguna
10.30	Coffee break
11.00h	Policy briefs and European Guidelines. Social impact of applied research at national and European level	John Canavan & David Herrera. University of Galway, University of Malaga
11.45h	Group discussion and individual consultations on Quality Family Support	María José Rodrigo. University of La Laguna Cristina Nunes. University of Algarve Lucía Jiménez. University of Seville
13.00h	Lunch time
14.15h	Consensus methods in family support research	Cristina Nunes & Cátia Martins. University of Algarve
15.15h	Coffee break
16.00h – 17.30h	Trainees Presentations: “What I have done or am planning to do to generate social impact with my research”	Forum: Space for presentation, feedback, debate and learning
19:00	Training school dinner

Friday 5th July

9.00h	Quality Assurance in Family Support. A policy & practice view	To be confirmed
10:00h	Alternative languages to generate social impact	David Herrera. University of Malaga
10.45h	Coffee break
11.15h	Trainees Presentations: “What I have done or am planning to do to generate social impact with my research”	Forum: Space for presentation, feedback, debate and learning
12.45h	Closure
13.00h	Lunch time	